Site - For Sale - Gozo - Xaghra

Unique site measuring circa 2600sqm which includes 530sqm in the development. The property which is situated in a quiet residential area presently consists of an unconverted house and a massive garden over 400 feet deep with open country views and distant sea views from the back. The relatively large area of the property gives it a good degree of positive uniqueness in the local property market. Detailed plans are available for this site to be turned into a high end 19-room BOUTIQUE HOTEL. Contact us to view detailed concept plans and artist impression about the proposed development.
