Naxxar - Situated in the best street of this sought after village, this house of character is made up of two adjoining houses with an entrance from the main street where you can access the two-car garage that inter-connects to the property, and another entrance from an alley. Restored to its former glory this property comprises a welcoming entrance hall, a kitchen, a living area and an enclosed courtyard with a motorised structure that is used as a dining area where one can dine Al fresco in warmer days. There is also a study/ office area, guest facilities and a lounge area. There are two outdoor areas with two different pools, one of which has a decking area. Both are private and not overlooked by other properties. The property has ten bedrooms, all complete with a private en-suite, some of which have a balcony or a terrace.
