House of Character - For Sale - Qormi

QORMI - A unique unconverted house of character situated in a quiet residential neighbourhood close to all amenities. The property is located on a plot measuring 8.4m by 18.8m and has an internal area of 160sqm. The house is built on two floors, consisting of 8 rooms, 2 yards, a terrace, a spectacular cellar, a majestic mill room and a large well. The property has great potential to be converted into a lavish home by extending rooms on the second floor, installing a pool, converting the current kitchen into an interconnected garage and transforming the mill room into a spacious kitchen/living/dining for entertainment. If you are searching for the irreplaceable house of character, I would highly recommend it. A house not to be missed!
