Palazzo - For Sale - Valletta

VALLETTA - Probably the best example still standing, of the past magnificence of Valletta's architecture, is this highly converted 400 year old PALAZZO situated in what is probably the best area of our Capital City. No expense has been spared to bring out all the original historic features to owner's great tastes. One is greeted by a huge imposing front door leading to a grand entrance hall, with all the old world architecture, itself leading to a lovely central courtyard. The original stone stairwell, very well restored, goes up to the next three floors. Here one discovers twenty two rooms, all finished to highest standards, including a gem of a penthouse level with full views of the Grand Harbour. All floors are separately serviced by a brand new lift. Also making up the property is a large dry basement cellar also full of features. Nothing in comparison!
